Maryland Women's Soccer Notes

TERPS GOT BACK ON TRACK AT MASON

The Terps returned to their winning ways on Wednesday afternoon, as they won at George Mason, 3-0. Senior Michelle Deville and freshman Vita McKenna scored within the first 4:04 of the game to give the Terps a quick 2-0 lead. Junior Keri Sarver scored her fifth goal of the season with 2:30 left to wrap it up for the Terps. Freshman goalkeeper Alli Wolff grabbed six saves in her second shutout of the season.

DOMINATING DEACONS

First year head coach Tony da Luz has directed Wake Forest to an early 4-0 record. The Deacons are led in scoring by sophomore Anne Shropshire, who has scored four goals and four assists for a total of 12 points. This is Wake Forest's first venture away from home this season.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOK

Keri Sarver's goal and assist on Wednesday afternoon tied her with teammate Emmy Harbo for most career points at Maryland with 82. She moved to within four goals of Harbo for the most goals in school history. Sarver's five goals ranks second in the ACC to Duke's Emily Feeney, who has seven.

Career Goals

1. 35-Emmy Harbo ('95-)
2. 31-Keri Sarver ('95-)
3. 28-Randi Goldblatt ('91-'94)

Career Points

1. 82-Emmy Harbo
2. 82-Keri Sarver
3. 63-Randi Goldblatt

MARYLAND-WAKE HISTORY

The Terps have taken the previous three meetings between the two schools. Last year the Terps handed Wake Forest its first loss of the season, with a 4-0 win at Winston-Salem.

NEXT FOR THE TERPS

The Terps will continue the 1st Annual Puma Tournament on Sunday afternoon at 3:00, when they take on Pennsylvania for the first time in history. Loyola and Wake Forest will get the afternoon started with a 1:00 tilt.
